Registration Is Shortened To Six Days

Registration for winter quarter will begin Monday, Nov. 27, and will close Monday, Dec. 4, according to Registrar Leo Smith.

Registration booklets, class schedules, and directions for registration will be available in the basement of Main hall on Monday and Wednesday of registration week.

"It is important that students pick up their registration material on these days," Smith said. "Monday we will have clerks handing out booklets from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 4:30. Wednesday, the clerks will be on duty from 1 to 4:30 only. We will not distribute registration material on any other day."

Students' names and the names of their advisers will not be on the booklets. "Just walk up to the table and get your stuff," Smith said. "If you are a veteran, tell the clerk." Veterans have one more card to fill out than non-veteran students.

"Usually advance registration has covered a two-week period. Students will have a week and one day this quarter," Smith said. "So it is important that they get their material early."

"I would also urge them to make appointments with their advisers early and to be there on time."

Checking will begin at 1 o'clock Monday. Checkers will be on duty from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 4:30 the rest of the week and Monday, Dec. 4.

Classes begin Wednesday, Jan. 3. Seniors who expect to be graduated in June, 1951, must file applications not later than Jan. 8, Smith said.

COWPUNCHERS DRAW FINAL DRAFT OF CONSTITUTION

Final preparations for adoption of a constitution by the Rodeo club will be made tonight at 7:30 in Forestry 106, according to Delos Robbins, Missoula.

Homecoming Registration Hits 669 Despite Weather

Despite the late date and adverse weather, alumni registration reached the 669 mark for the 1950 Homecoming last week end, Mrs. Helen Warden, alumni records secretary, said yesterday.

Alums came from almost every town in the state with incomplete tabulations indicating that Missoula, Helena, Butte, and Great Falls had the heaviest alumni registration, while three graduates came from south of the border and one from Japan.

Elaine Baskett Mueller '39 came up from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, to take in the 1950 event. Her husband, Charles G. Mueller, also a former MSU student, is in the consular service there.

A surprise guest was Irving C. Pearson from Cumarebo, Venezuela. Pearson is attached to the Creole Petroleum corporation. He was graduated from the University in 1944 with a degree in business administration, and in 1948 received his LL.B.

Mrs. Dorothea Rector '25, after leaving her job as a physical education director in the Panama Canal Zone school system, returned to her old home in Great Falls and to the MSU Homecoming.

Just recently returned from Japan, Lt. Col. Ralph M. Wandler '39 attended the week-end festivities. He is presently stationed in Washington.

Members of MSU's first football team, Howard Schroeder, Missoula; Sid Ward, Clinton; and Cliff Ritenour, Plains, were honored guests at a Friday dinner. They were given honorary life memberships in the Alumni association and lifetime passes to all university athletic events.

Yanks Reach Yalu River, Capture Border Town

Tokyo, Nov. 20—(UP)—American soldiers have reached the border of Manchuria.

They captured the city of Hyesanjin on the Manchurian frontier in North Korea yesterday. Patrols of the American Seventh division already had advanced to the banks of the Yalu river, which is the dividing line between Korea and Communist China.

Object number one will be to seize the points along the Yalu where supplies and reinforcements have been moving across from Manchuria. The American troops are expected to fan out in both directions along the river, establishing their control over as much of the riverbank as possible.

The GI's will be able to give concrete proof to what our diplomats have been saying all along—that once we reach the banks of the Yalu, there we stop.

The smashing advance of the American tanks up to the border met with almost no Communist resistance. The Reds seemed to have melted away entirely, and the tanks, with infantrymen riding them, went forward so fast their supply trucks couldn't keep up with them. Transport planes had to drop food and gasoline by parachute to keep them supplied.

To the east of the Americans, a South Korean division is meeting stiff resistance in its drive up the coast. To the west, in the central sector, GI's and Koreans also are meeting stiff resistance, although the Reds are falling back. In the far west, things right now are in a stalemate.

LIE PEACE FORMULA PASSES ASSEMBLY

New York, Nov. 20—(UP)—The United Nations general assembly had to choose between conflicting statements of its Secretary-General and the Soviet delegation today. And by an overwhelming majority, the assembly backed up Secretary-General Trygve Lie. It passed, 51 to 5, with only the Soviet bloc opposing, the 20-year peace program developed by Lie and his assistants.

Grizzly Rally Set For 4:45 Today

The final football rally for the Grizzly pigskin packers will be given this afternoon at 4:45 just before they leave for Hawaii from the main airport.

The Grizzly squad will leave Missoula by Northwest airlines at 5 o'clock. They will fly to Seattle where they will change to Pan-American clipper. The Pan-American plane will arrive in Hawaii at 6:45 Wednesday morning.

The 35 members making this trip will rest Wednesday in preparation for their Thanksgiving day game against San Jose State college.

APO Men Return From Scout Meet

Twelve Alpha Phi Omega, national boy scout service fraternity, members returned to the campus last week from a regional meeting at Eugene, Ore.

Nearly 100 persons from 18 schools in Montana, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon were present at the Friday-Sunday sessions.

MSU's delegates were Herbert Waltermire, Missoula, president; Robert Nicholson, Hamilton, past president; Dr. L. I. Iverson, adviser.

Sentinel Asks Clubs To Return Forms

All organizations which have not yet returned their 1951 Sentinel page contracts should do so at once, Tom Ambrose, associate editor, said yesterday. He also urged any groups which do not plan to purchase space to turn in their contracts unsigned.

Parking Plan—With Teeth, To Be Put in Action Dec. 4

A campus parking plan, designed to wring order and efficiency from the present haphazard parking habits of student and faculty drivers, will be put in action before the end of fall quarter.

Tom Swearingen's workers start today on the installation of 70 signs marking certain campus areas "reserved for faculty" and "closed to parking."

Rendered almost toothless by the faculty's veto of a fine system, the plan provides for ticketing violators' cars. A record of violations will be kept and repeaters may have parking privileges withdrawn.

Enforcement of the regulations probably will begin Dec. 4, depending on the printing of tickets and stickers and installation of the signs.

There will be space for 1,372 cars in the designated areas. Of these, 170 will be reserved for faculty members and year-round clerical employees.

Windshield stickers will be issued to faculty members and students when they register their vehicles for campus parking. These stickers will be numbered to identify violators.

"This plan was evolved after many months of study by students, faculty and administration," said Dean of Students H. J. Wunderlich. "Its success depends upon the willingness of drivers to co-operate in observing regulations."

SX Wins Hi-Jinx; PDT Second, DG And SN Third

Homecoming officials announced Monday that a recount of balloting on student acts in the Varsity Hi-Jinx show Friday night put the Delta Gamma skit in a tie with Sigma Nu for third place. A duplicate prize is being awarded the DG entry.

Alumni spokesmen praised not only the six acts selected for the show, but also the other preliminary entrants and expressed appreciation to the students for the work put in preparing for the show, which homecomers generally agreed was the best in years.

The Homecoming committee said it "sincerely regretted" the error which prevented the Delta Gamma act from receiving due recognition while the Homecoming program was in progress.

The first-place award went to Sigma Chi and their "Versatile Five" who sang and played songs from different time eras. The Phi Delta Theta skit with the Scrougelike "J. Pompus Alum"—an MSU grad who was finally convinced he should go to Homecoming—won the second-place award.

The Delta Gamma skit featured the song, "The Beer That I Left on the Bar," being sung from off-stage by members of the sorority. The song was sung twice, first with Edna Marie Thompson, Missoula, reciting the words while the group hummed the song in the background. On stage, a large bar was shown, complete with a large schooner of beer. Ruth Hyde, Havre, sang the song the second time while human pictures illustrating parts of the song were spotlighted on the stage.

The Sigma Nu skit featured three fandancers, supposedly prominent at the time many of the alums were attending school.

COUNCIL TO EVALUATE RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

An evaluation of Religious Emphasis week will be made by the Student Religious council at 4:10 this afternoon in the Eloise Knowles room of the Student Union, the Rev. Bruce K. Wood, faculty adviser to the council, said yesterday.

Election date for new members will be set and permanent faculty advisers to the council will be chosen, Reverend Wood said.

trolmen. They will hand out tickets for these violations:

Parking cars in reserved or restricted areas between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.; parking within 10 feet of fire hydrants; cross-walk parking; blocking a driveway; parking within 30 feet of stop signs; parking along red-painted curbs or within 20 feet of no-parking signs; parking in service areas, bus-loading zones; driving or parking on walks or lawns; and improper parking—on the wrong side of a street or double parking.

Russian War Is Subject Of Discussion

"My Country and the Cold War" was the topic discussed by the foreign students at their panel last week.

In general, the students felt the cold war was a real issue, but the European students said that they had been in it so long that it no longer seemed to be a real crisis. Opinions expressed were personal and did not necessarily reflect the opinions of the countries the students represent, Jim Wylder, Havre, said.

The students feel that their respective countries definitely had aligned themselves with the western powers and were hoping for a Western victory in the cold war so no "hot" war would develop.

Russian propaganda was better emotionally but the United States' was more effective because of the factual presentation, the students thought. They emphasized the Marshall plan as being the most vital thing the United States has done from a material and propaganda point of view.

Foreign students participating were Dor Douma, Holland; Kalesh Dudharkar, India; Gunter Ordelt, Austria; Ann Marie Tourelle, France; Bertil Greko, Sweden; Ralph Odendahl, Germany; Heinz Kottenhoff, Germany; and Phoebe Habib, Egypt. Assoc. Prof. Robert E. Turner served as moderator.

Music Students Present Recital

A student recital was presented by the music school in Main hall auditorium yesterday, Eugene Andrie, associate professor of music, said.

Richard Eichholz, Hamilton, played Presto by Balli on the piano. Concerto in B flat major by Vivaldi, was played by Mora MacKinnon, Butte, violinist, accompanied by Mary Ellen Styles, Colstrip.

Giordani's Car Mio Ben was sung by Terry Stevenson, Havre, baritone, accompanied by Charles Stone, Butte. Kenneth Salmen, Helena, violinist, accompanied by Joan Kimball, Hysham, played Rondino by Kreisler.

Songs from Spain by Nin was played by Madison Vick, Missoula, violinist, accompanied by John Cowan, Hebson. Kathleen Hager, Helena, pianist, soloed on Chopin's Waltz in C minor.

Hall of Fame For Grizzly Hoopsters

A Basketball Hall of Fame has been formed at MSU to honor the men who have been outstanding during the past years and to serve as added incentive for future players to strive to gain outstanding recognition.

The selection of Hall of Fame members is based on three attributes, the first being a general all-around basketball ability which includes the type of offensive and defensive player he was, the kind of a team member he was known to be, and what kind of competitive spirit he had.

Other Attributes

The second attribute is leadership and the third is character.

Because it is impossible for any one committee to have seen all the players in action between 1904 and 1950, the time has been divided into three sections and one committee appointed for each. The first group is from 1904 to 1915, the second from 1916 to 1930, and the third from 1931 to 1950.

Some committee members will be on all three groups, others may be on two, and others on one group. This depends upon the amount of basketball each member has seen through the years.

Every nominating committee member received a list containing the names of basketball lettermen at MSU since 1904. Nominations totaling 49 have been received, 8 from the first section, 19 from the second, and 22 from the third.

Nominations Compiled

A list of the 49 nominations has been compiled and sent to each committee member for the final consideration. In order for a player to be eligible for selection to the Hall of Fame he must have completed his possible competition.

Once a player is nominated by a 60 per-cent vote of the committee he remains on the list. When he receives a vote of 75 per cent he immediately is added to the Hall of Fame.

Each year the nominating list will be voted upon but it is not necessary or required that some player be selected for the Hall of Fame each time. It is possible that a period of five years may lapse before an outstanding basketball player is honored by being elected. Then too, it is possible that one or more players will receive the honor each year.

Plans are under way to get a bronze plaque on which will appear the names of the honored hoopsters.

Secretarial Jobs Prove Plentiful For Women Grads

Women students who want a good job immediately after graduation are missing a good bet if they aren't taking the secretarial courses of the School of Business Administration, according to Paul Chumrau, director of the placement bureau.

This year, every spring quarter graduate was placed immediately after she was graduated and each one had a choice of three or four jobs.

The openings for secretarial positions always have outnumbered the applications for these positions, Chumrau said. This is because of an average turn-over every two years due mostly to marriage.

Businessmen in this state and in other states are in constant need of secretaries, but the government and Civil Service get most of the women who are graduated from the School of Business Administration.

Hoflich Returns From Conference

Dr. Harold J. Hoflich, director of the Business and Economic Research bureau, returned Friday from a meeting at Helena, where he represented the University at the industrial development division of the Montana chamber of commerce.

The industrial branch of the Chamber of Commerce is concerned with fostering industrial development in Montana.
